

Work From Home Policy

Company: ExampleTech Solutions Pvt. Ltd.

Document type: Dummy training policy

Version: 1.0

Effective date: 1 January 2026

1. Purpose

This policy defines the conditions under which eligible employees may work remotely.

2. Eligibility

Employees who have completed 3 months of continuous service may request regular work-from-home arrangements, subject to manager approval and role suitability.

3. Regular Remote Work

Eligible employees may work from home up to 2 working days per week when approved by their reporting manager.

4. Temporary Work From Home

Employees may request temporary remote work for specific personal or operational circumstances. The manager may approve, modify, or decline the request based on business needs.

5. Working Hours

Employees working remotely must follow their assigned working hours and remain reachable through approved company communication tools.

6. Equipment and Security

Employees must protect company information while working remotely and use company-approved devices, software, and security controls where provided.

7. Performance

Work-from-home arrangements do not change performance expectations, deliverables, or attendance requirements unless otherwise approved.

Training note: This is fictional HR policy data created for RAG/LlamaIndex learning. It is not an actual company policy.